A note from Mr Stoyles

On a wet blustery Friday morning on the 9th November, the children all congregated at the War Memorial, to remember and to thank those of a previous generation.

Elliot (Chairperson of our School Council), lay a wreath on behalf of all members of the school and Mr Stoyles led us in reflection and prayer. The children all respected the one minute silence at 11 am.

The children's clay poppies are on display in the church porch.

Can I please remind Year 5 & 6 children that deposits of £50 for the 2019 Year 5/6 Residential trip to London are due by the 29th November.

30 hours Nursery funding for Spring Term 2019

This is a reminder that parents who wish to begin claiming 30 hours funding from January 2019 must receive their code by 31st December 2018 at the very latest. HMRC recommend parents begin their application by the end of November to allow time for the claim to be processed.

In order for extended hours funding to continue in the Spring Term 2019, it is very important that you need to log in to your childcare account with HMRC and re-confirm your details as soon as possible.

Codes that have a grace period end date of 31st December 2018 must be re-validated by that date, at the very latest, for extended hours to be paid in the spring term. HMRC recommend that parents do this by the end of November to ensure the process is completed on time.

After re-confirming your details and if found to still be eligible the end date will be extended.

Christmas Primestock show

Can we please remind Year 3, 4, 5 & 6 children to bring their Primestock craft entries back to school by 1st December.
