A note from Mr Stoyles

After being back at school for only 12 days, there is already so many exciting things happening! Yesterday, the children took part in our half termly organised fire drill. All staff and children assembled in a record-breaking time of 3 minutes 37 seconds and all were accounted for at 4 minutes 7 seconds – a fantastic effort by all. Also, Keyne classes first swimming session took place at Polkyth Leisure Centre. The children had an hours swimming session which was thoroughly enjoyed by all... apart from a few pairs of lost socks!

Based on feedback from parents regarding the cost of Ladoca's proposed trip to the Eden Project, this will now be funded entirely by the P.T.F.A. Thank you to those who have given a contribution already, your money will be refunded via ParentPay. The P.T.F.A also have many exciting activities, events and opportunities that other classes in the school will be able to take advantage of. Please see the notice overleaf for an insight of the exciting events to come!

I will be holding a series of parent forums in the upcoming months. The dates for these are:

- ♦ 10/10/18 – 2pm,
- ♦ 29/01/19 – 2pm
- ♦ 12/06/19 – 2pm.

This will be both an opportunity for me to give you an insight about plans for the school, upcoming events, challenges and hurdles as well as an opportunity for you to discuss your views. I look forward to seeing you.

St Austell Festival of Music & Speech

21st November—1st December

Children from Year Reception to Year 6 are invited to prepare a set poem or to read a passage from their favourite book to perform at this festival.

Ladock school has taken part in this event for the last 4 years and it has proved to be a very rewarding experience for the children, who get to enjoy a range of poems and learn key life skills of being able to present a piece of work in front of a small audience.

We practise on Monday afternoons afterschool until 4.15pm, and our first practise, when we will look at the poems, will be this Monday 24th September. Entries for the competition need to be in soon, but there will be plenty of time to practise.

This is a fun informal club, but children need to come every week if possible as it is the repetition of rehearsal that gives them confidence. The club is run Nicola Marsden (Tommy & Walter's mum), she will be looking for a second parent to support her, please find her in the playground if you would be interested.
